ARP. 4-6/41/42 dt 1st Jan. 43 requesting Sanction in the circumstances to meet an expenditure of Rs. 96-4-3 incurred for providing refreshments to the Police Staff etc, and also the Sum of Rs 10000/- Sanctioned for ARP purposes.

Reference is invited to the Govt Sanctioning the grant of allowances to the ARP Volunteers who were required to be on duty on the 8th Aug. Night Subsequently on the ARP's recommendation similar allowances were Sanctioned to the Police Staff who were on duty that night. Lunch charges were incurred only for the Essential Services. The present reference states that the expenditure was incurred for providing refreshments to the Police Staff, Civic Guards and ARP volunteers ARP volunteers were entitled to an allowance of Rupee One. It is not clear to under whose orders the DSP provided lunch for the persons referred to and the reference is silent thereon. If the expenditure is Sanctioned, it has to be met out of the lumpsum for ARP now and not out of the Sum of Rs 10000/- since it is in connection with ARP. Services. Submitted for favourable orders.

The Dy. Commissioner's attention may be invited to the Govt Orders Sanctioning allowances to the various ARP Wardens whether the allowances can be paid to them or whether the lunch charges may not come out of it.

18 SEP 1943 GOVT OF MYSORE

8/7

The G.O. applies only to the ARP Volunteers who were on duty that night. That is why the I.G.P. requested separate sanction for the Police Staff who were on duty from his office. ~~Subsequently the Police~~ Since ARP Volunteers have also been granted a share of the Bonus and since the present rate includes ARP Volunteers also, perhaps there may be need to the I.G.P. for furnishing of remarks.
